STEWART CHANDLER SHOT FROM AMBUSH

UNKNOWN ASSASSINS MAKE ATTEMPT ON LIFE OF EAST END LAD.

J. E. B. Stuart Chandler, aged 17, son of Sam Chandler of the East End, was shot and dangerously wounded by unknown parties while on his way home from church Tuesday night. The bullet entered young Chandler's right leg just below the hip and penetrated the member. The shooting occurred near Cedar Creek at about 10:30. As the night was dark the young man was unable to identify his assailants and having no enemies that he knows of, he and his family are completely at a loss to know who did the dastardly deed. Mr. Chandler is sober, quiet and industrious and has never been in trouble. After the shooting Chandler walked to the home of Tom Manuel and the latter notified his father, who summoned physicians. They dressed this unfortunate man's wounds and at last accounts he was doing reasonably well.

Friends of the Chandler boy are insisting that Judge Bailey offer a reward for the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties.

Stiff Fines

The negro girls, unable to pay the fines were taken to jail to serve their terms. Judge Menefee is determined to break up the habit of negro girls congregating about the depot making it embarrassing for ladies to go up that street to catch a train by their loud talking and unseemingly actions.

Sewerage System

AGITATION TO BE STARTED IN STANFORD AT ONCE

Agitating for a new sewerage system for Stanford was started last week when Attorney K. S. Alcorn and others went before the city council and suggested the urgent need of adequate sewerage for the city to the City Fathers. Strong advocates of a complete sewerage for the city admit that the only way that it can be secured is by means of a vote of bonds. A campaign of education is to be started at once, and it is hoped that a vote can be obtained on a bond issue at an early date, for it is felt that the sanitary condition of city is such that something must be done for the sake of the people's health before another summer rolls around.

Christian Churches

OF COUNTY TO HOLD SEMI-ANNUAL RALLY AT HUBBLE SATURDAY.

The 42 semi-annual meeting of the Christian churches of Lincoln county will be held at the Hubble church on Saturday and a large attendance is expected. Concerning this meeting and its work, Rev. D. M. Walker, pastor of the Christian church at Stanford says:

This organization of churches of this county to do missionary work in its own borders under the management of the churches within the county is unique, it being the only one in the State with such an organization of which the writer has knowledge. Upon investigating the records of this work, it will be found that about 2,000 people have made the good confession under the influence of preaching that has been done by the evangelists of this organization. Six congregations have been organized and housed by the co-operative effort of the churches. Two congregations have been raised when about to disband and are now in a flourishing condition.

This is indeed a splendid record and one of which our people are justly proud. But with success there has come a disposition on the part of the churches to grow careless about their duty and to lose sight of the fact that there are other fields within our own borders to be evangelized, and hence our organization has been unable during the past year, on account of lack of finances to keep the evangelists busy in destitute fields in fact brethren, for this, intended for an appeal to the churches, unless we rally, our county organization will fall through and our evangelist will have to be dismissed. At the meeting to be held at Hubble on October 15th, it will be determined whether we will continue the organization or not. If you desire it to continue brethren, come to this meeting and bring a contribution to the work.

NOTED PERSONAGE DIES IN EAST END

"BEARDY" SMITH WAS A VERSATILE PENMAN—OTHER NEWS

Preachersville, Oct. 13

"Beardy" Smith aged about 70 years and one of the most unique personages who has ever frequented this section is dead. He was found dead in the barn of Capt. Johnson living near here, where he had gone to attend to the feeding. He was a thorough scholar, knew most of the Bible by heart and was one of the finest penmen we have ever seen. With a quill pen of his own make he could closely imitate copper plate engraving. With a pen in each hand he could write his name each copy being like the other. He could write any number of lines, each so unlike that we doubt if the chirography expert of the government would think them written by the same hand. He was a native of Virginia and owned a fine farm there, but he preferred the roving life, having been all over the country. He was Confederate veteran and wanted to go to the Pewee Valley Soldier's Home and when taken to Lancaster by a friend, sympathizers quickly responded and made a nice purse for him when they found him out. If he ever reached the home or why he returned is not known.

Rev. J. E. Roberts pastor of the M. L. church at this place has arrived. Rev. F. D. Palmer, the former pastor has moved, his family to Moreland. We wish to commend him as a Christian gentleman to the good people there.

Local Option Case

OF IMPORTANCE DECIDED BY APPELLATE COURT.

The court of appeals this week decided an important phase of what constitutes a sale of liquor in a local option district when it reversed judgment of the Mercer circuit court in the case of the Commonwealth, et al., against W. A. Bottom and DeWitt Bonta, of Lawrenceburg. The liquor was ordered by telephone and by letter to be sent to certain parties in Harrodsburg. The liquor was sent not by express or other common carrier, but was delivered to the parties in Harrodsburg by someone who collected the money for Bottom or for Bonta, who was Bottom's bartender. Bonta and Bottom were indicted for selling whisky in a local option district and their attorneys contended that sale of the whisky was made in Lawrenceburg and not in Harrodsburg, but the court here says that this case is different from the one where liquor is shipped in a bona fide way by a common carrier, into a local option district on a bona fide order.

The case of Owen Turpin against the Commonwealth from Rockcastle was reversed by the Court of Appeals because of errors committed by the attorney in saying to the jury that one of its members had been "fixed" and other similar expressions. Turpin was convicted by the jury of voluntary manslaughter and now he gets a third trial.

FOOT BALL SATURDAY

The Stanford High School foot ball team will meet the strong D. & D. team at Danville Saturday afternoon. This will be a hard fought game as the teams are pretty well matched although, the D. & D. has the advantage of our boys in weight. As the ground on which they will play is not level, it can readily be seen that Stanford will be handicapped. D. & D. would not come here and rather than have no game, our boys elected to "beard the lion" in his den.

MANY CANDIDATES FOR COUNTY OFFICES

INDICATIONS ARE THAT WOODS WILL BE FULL OF THEM—SOME "MENTIONED."

News comes from the West End that Hon. M. F. North, who represented Lincoln county in the legislature a number of terms, is being urged by many of his friends to make the race for the democratic nomination for county judge for the next term. Mr. North is said to have about made up his mind to run, and will soon begin to prosecute an active canvass, it is said.

Considerable speculation is being indulged in as to the candidates for a number of county offices for the next terms. Much interest seems to center in the race for the sheriff's office.
